AMERICAN NUMISMATIC ASSOCIATION ANNUAL CONVENTION

Davenport, Iowa, August 19, 20, 21, 1946

In the Centennial Year of Iowa's Statehood at the Invitation of the Iowa Numismatic Association and the Davenport Numismatic Club. Held at the Blackhawk Hotel.

MONDAY MORNING SESSION

PRESIDENT BELT: Ladies and Gentlemen, the meeting will please come to order. The Association Meeting is declared to be officially open, and the first matter on the program this morning will be a few remarks by our genial host, Mr. Loyd Gettys. Mr. Gettys, please.

MR. GETTYS: Ladies and gentlemen, we are very glad to welcome this fine group to our meeting, and we are practically starting on time.

In holding national conventions, it is always necessary to have an address of welcome, and in arranging these addresses of welcome, every town has one of them. Sometimes they are elected; sometimes they are self-appointed; sometimes we don't know how they attained their exalted position as the official welcomer. Now, Davenport is fortunate in having one of those outstanding persons. He is one of those folk that you sort of have to put up with now and then, but this one is a little different from those you find in the average town. You know, they get up and tell you that everything is unlocked, and if the policemen mark your car, just come to me and I will get it fixed. But don't pay any attention to that here, because this fellow will just throw you in the hoosegow. That is just a little bit of free advertising that we always give, but, seriously, this man I am going to introduce is one of the finest men in the State of Iowa, and one of the finest men the State of Iowa has ever produced. He is a good executive for this city, and you will bear me out. There isn't a fight going on in this city. Everything is peaceful, and whenever you find a city that has a peaceful administration you will find it has a good administration. I take great pleasure in introducing to you, ladies and gentlemen, our good friend and mayor, A. R. Kroppach, mayor of the city of Davenport. (Applause)

MAYOR KROPPACH: Thank you, Loyd, and your great president and other executives and good looking girls. Now, ladies and gentlemen, I have to see if I can pronounce this first, "Numismatic," is that okay?

MR. GETTYS: Yes.

MAYOR KROPPACH: I told my son I was to offer an address of welcome at the American Numismatic Association, and he wondered what form of rheumatism that was. I suppose you heard that one before. (Laughter) You people are fortunate in collecting money. God knows I have collected money, but I have never been able to hold on to it very long. As you probably know, Loyd is a life insurance man, and on one occasion he was selling some life insurance and was having some difficulty and he turned to his client and asked, "Do you want straight life?" And the guy says, "Well, I would like to step out once in a while." (Laughter) I am going to go further, I am not going to throw you in jail, but to you good looking gals I would like to make this offer. We have some stringent driving rules in Davenport and we have only one law. However, I would like to maintain that. Please don't drive on the sidewalk, but if you do I hope you don't get arrested and put in jail. Please call me though if they do put you in jail and I will come down and sit in jail with you. I have ordered this weather for you, and you can't get away from the fact that it is ideal weather. The weather is just right and Davenport is a very fine city and we think we are the friendliest city in the world, and we say that if somebody doesn't smile you should just let me know and I will see that he does smile for you.

I heard Loyd say that you are going to the Arsenal. I know that after you have visited the Arsenal you will agree with me that it is one of the largest arsenals in the world. There is a lot of acreage over there and we are very proud of the wonderful war record our Arsenal made. This area comprising the Quad-Cities is composed of probably a quarter of a million people, and Davenport's population is around 76,000. In addition to our friendliness, and the large Arsenal situated in our midst, you will find some wonderful drives and beautiful parks in our city. Inasmuch as Loyd is your host here, let him take you up to our art gallery. From New York west, we boast one of the finest art galleries. We have a lot of originals there and of course there are a lot of copies. We are proud of our art gallery. Our park system is swell. Our drives are beautiful—in other words, well, we have a hell of a swell place here. We hope that you have a very fine and successful meeting. Going back to the old idea, here I have a key—if I ever get it out of here—ladies and gentlemen, here is the key to our fair city. It says, "Official key, the city of Davenport." I know you don't need it, because everything has been opened for you anyway. I am going to hand it to your president, and if you have any problems this will solve it. Good luck to you and we certainly are happy to have you here. (Applause)

PRESIDENT BELT: I will put this key down on the registration desk, and if anybody should need it it will be there available at all hours of the day and night, and we will make you live up to it. Thank you very much, Mr. Mayor, for your welcome, and we certainly enjoyed it a great deal, and I am sure we will have a good time. Ladies and gentlemen, we will proceed now with the regular order of business as shown in the program which you have. The first thing is the naming of the committees for this convention.

They are as follows:

CONVENTION COMMITTEES

Credentials: Edward Fogler, Ernest Moore, Michael A. Powills.

Proxy: Carl T. Shelby, A. V. Von Rhein, Theo. G. Kaufman, L. W. Culver.

Resolutions: Elias Rasmussen, Martin F. Kortjohn, Frank J. Katen, Edmund E. Lamb, R. S. Yeoman.

Election: Charles P. Knoth, Isabelle MacIntosh, Helen Lewis, Joseph F. Maley, Norman B. Mason, Harold R. Klein, Sol Kaplan, Paul Ginther, Ed. Peters.

The Election Committee will start canvassing the ballots at 6:00 o'clock tomorrow evening, at which time the ballots will be officially closed, so if you have any ballots in your possession they must be in the hands of the secretary not later than 6:00 o'clock tomorrow evening. Now, the next matter of business at this time is the reading of the list of the deceased members, and I will call upon our General Secretary to please read that list, Mr. Reagan:

PRESIDENT BELT: That concludes the reading, and I would like to have you all please stand in reverence. (Thereupon the entire membership present stood in reverence.) Thank you. This next order of business is in the program here and I think it is the report of the president. I feel that after a year's experience I would like to talk to you for several hours. There are so many things that I would like to bring to you, but in view of the fact that our time is limited and in view of the fact that your patience is also limited, I am going to confine this to a few remarks, instead of many. I have tried to hit a few of the high spots and I will take this opportunity to read my report to you.

REPORT OF THE PRESIDENT

First, may I extend to the Iowa Numismatic Association and the Davenport Numismatic Club our most sincere thanks in appreciation for the wonderful program of diversion and entertainment which they have provided for our enjoyment.

Their many months of hard work and planning have finally culminated in producing one of the outstanding conventions in A. N. A. history and if our members fail to have a good time the fault will be entirely their own.

Being fairly familiar, as I am, with Iowa hospitality, I can assure you that they will leave no stone unturned to see that everyone present has a royal welcome and when the time comes to return home, you will carry with you the fond memory of one of the most pleasant and enjoyable conventions of your numismatic experience.

Truly, the key to the City is in your own possession, here in this historic City of Davenport, Iowa.

A year ago, you may recall, I pledged that the then newly elected officers would do their best to equal the inenviable records made by their predecessors. How well we have fulfilled that pledge can be determined by going through the Official Reports. We take justifiable pride in presenting what we believe to be one of the best reports ever submitted.

In addition to abstract figures, many definite betterments and improvements have been inaugurated during the year. Some of the matters contemplated a year ago are still in the process of development; some have been discarded, but, on the whole, definite progress has been made toward a carefully planned future goal.

Not all of this development has been due to the work of your Officers. They have been aided and advised by the regular membership; and, if it had not been for that wholehearted cooperation, such a record would have been an impossibility. We extend our most sincere thanks and appreciation to all for their assistance.

The records show that our active membership is now 6098, just lacking two of an even 6100. This is the high for all time in A. N. A. membership. In addition, we have pending nearly 300 additional applications, so we now foresee our reaching the 6500 mark within the immediate future. Our percentage of increase during this year exceeded last by 2.6%, or a total of 21.9% for the year.

A substantial part of this increase in membership is due to the withdrawal of restrictions brought about by the war. Some of this increase is represented by the writing of new foreign members, coupled with the reduction of our foreign inactive list. Many new District Secretaries for countries other than our own have been appointed and I feel safe in promising many new foreign attachments in the year to come.

Our District Secretaries and their assistants have given us very splendid reports of their stewardship. The reports of many of them will be presented later in the session. I wish to extend to each and every one of them our appreciation of the efforts they have expended in behalf of the Association. Please read over the individual reports, which will be published in the official magazine, and show your appreciation by dropping them a personal letter of commendation.

At the commencement of the fiscal year, your Board determined to put into execution a long cherished plan for an intensive numismatic educational program. This master plan contemplated the appointment of several committees, each with a definite outline, but all more or less correlated in the final objective. The whole general plan being under the direct supervision and control of one super-committee.

The former Educational Committee was reappointed. In spite of several disappointments, this committee will soon report the completion of a very worthwhile manual, covering, in a way, a primary education on the highlights of ancient, medieval and modern numismatics.

The Edward T. Newell Memorial Extension of Numismatic Knowledge Committee has completed a large part of its work, and some of you had the pleasure of enjoying a small part of their extensive program last evening. This program will bring to every member reproductions of outstanding items of general and special interest, right in their own club rooms, together with complete and exhaustive explanations of each and every specimen. From present indications, this fairly new feature seems destined to fill a long felt want and may prove to be one of our most popular educational features.

The Publications Committee has already made a number of valuable reprints. In the very near future, this branch of our service will be enlarged to such an extent as to put authentic numismatic literature, on many subjects, well within the cost limits of the small collector, but still maintain the detail demanded by the experts.

Our splendid library has been greatly enlarged and it is now possible for local club secretaries to borrow a well selected group of books and pamphlets on items of popular interest. This club feature is now being tried out but will be made a permanent feature if sufficient interest is manifest. Under this plan, a selection is sent to the club secretary for thirty days, and every member of the local club, whether or not a member of our Association, is entitled to the use of portions of this library. I hope to see this service greatly expanded during the years to come.

All these activities, as well as many others, are grouped under the greater General Educational Activities Control Committee (called GEACC for short) who have the duty of formulating the policy of our Association in educational activity. This is a most important committee and its long range planning will, we hope, be most beneficial and helpful in our future educational activities.

The whole general theme of this grand convention is based, largely, upon parts of this huge educational program and we most sincerely trust that it will meet with your wholehearted approval.

During the year, the Awards Committee made their report on outstanding contributors to The Numismatist. Medals and cash awards have or will be presented to the winners. This recognition on your part has been well received, and I trust it may be the means of our obtaining many additional articles of outstanding merit.

Your Board has established a yearly three months scholarship on Numismatics in the American Numismatic Society for the benefit of some one member of our Association, his child or grandchild. This, most forward step, opens a field of educational opportunity never before attempted by our Association. Interested members should contact GEACC for full particulars and details.

Our Moritz Wormser Memorial Loan Exhibit of coins in the Smithsonian Institution has reached the one thousand mark. We are informed that no additional space is available at the Smithsonian. We own many additional numismatic items which should be properly displayed, but before they can be placed, some suitable site must be arranged for. This should have immediate attention.

Your General Secretary is entitled to a vote of thanks for special services rendered during the year. Not only has he carried on the necessary work of his office, but, in addition, he has handled the job of Publicity Director, corrected the mailing lists (no small job in itself), compiled and issued our new directory, personally visited many clubs as speaker on a planned program, answered hundreds of letters of inquiry, and many other things outside the regular and ordinary duties of his office.

Some years ago our former General Secretary, genial M. Vernon Sheldon, stated that the office had grown to be a full time job. If that was true then, it is doubly true today. It is my opinion that we have reached the time when we should consider the office of our General Secretary as a full time job and make arrangements for establishing a regular office with a salary and expense account adequate to hire competent personnel. This is no reflection on the present General Secretary. He has done a most remarkable job, but I feel certain he would have done much, much better if all his time and energy could have been devoted entirely to our official business.

I think you, perhaps, may not know, but we do not have a full-time employee in our organization, not one. Everything is part-time. Some of those officers are paid, but the greater portion of them are not paid, so I call that to your attention for your serious consideration if you folks wish to take it up.

With additional time, our General Secretary could more carefully investigate candidates for Association membership, for one thing. I hope to see the day when membership in our Association will be accepted as a guarantee of high moral standing and reasonable credit. True, applicants are checked in a general way, but not with the care and attention to credit and moral responsibility that I hope may eventually be exercised. At best, we are judged, in many cases, by the few who seek to use our good name as a cloak to cover their own dishonest practices. A great part of this stigma could be removed, if the investigating officer had more time at his disposal. As it is, we all suffer. By demanding better character references and checking regular credit records, we would be protecting not only ourselves, but our public standing as well. I would like to see our membership accepted as an honor and with the highest prestige.

During the past year, your officers were faced with many tough problems and still have a few to unravel. One of the most serious and sometimes alarming difficulties was the acute shortage of paper. Sometimes, we did not know whether or not the next issue of THE NUMISMATIST could be printed until almost press time. It has been an almost constant worry. Vice-President Douglas and Governor Kortjohn have done a heroic job, and, so far, we have not missed an issue although some have been limited in volume. Within a few months, it is hoped, this shortage, like many others, will be only a memory. At the time I wrote that I sincerely believed it, but in talking to Mr. Douglas since I came here it will be at least a year or more before we can hope for any help in the paper situation.

For our regular printing activity, we are attempting to standardize all booklets to one size. The size of THE NUMISMATIST was selected as most convenient and suitable and all reprints, library list, directory, and other publications will be of that size.

Some years ago the need of certain changes in our Constitution and By-laws became apparent. Past President Ferguson named a committee for that purpose, but the stress of the times made it practically impossible to accomplish anything. You will recall that we did not have a regular convention of the general membership. The world turmoil did not start to abate until late in the second term of President Kortjohn, so it was not until last year that serious thought could be given this most important matter.

At the commencement of our term, your Board authorized the appointment of a revision committee and Max M. Schwartz, Martin F. Kortjohn, J. Douglas Ferguson, were appointed as committee members, with Col. Joseph Moss as Associate Counsel. Many months of hard work, conferences, correspondence, and open debate preceded the final draft which will be submitted for your approval at this Convention. The proposed draft may not be perfect, but it is the result of seriously considered opinions and recommendations of some of our best legal and lay talent. We do need a revision. Continued procedure under our present set-up might cause us future embarrassment, even possible trouble. When it is submitted for your approval later in the session, I respectfully request you give it your most serious consideration. Some changes may be suggested, some may be made, but I sincerely ask you to listen carefully to necessary explanations that may be made by members of the committee and cast your votes carefully. In legal matters, and this is a most important one, the change of a single word may defeat the entire purpose of the proposal. This is mighty serious business and should be given the most considered attention and study. I believe, whether or not the suggestions are adopted, that we owe the Committee a special vote of thanks and appreciation for their efforts.

I wish to extend my thanks to all my fellow Officers, Committee Chairmen, Committee members, District Secretaries, Assistant District Secretaries, and to the membership in general for the wholehearted support and cooperation extended me during the past year.

I respectfully bespeak the continuation of this valuable confidence during the next.

I thank you.

V. LEON BELT

VICE PRESIDENT DOUGLAS assumed the Chair—

MR. DOUGLAS: Gentlemen, you have heard the splendid report of your chief executive. Leon has asked me to take the chair and ask you your desires in connection with his report.

MR. KAPLAN: I move it be adopted.

MR. DOUGLAS: Mr. Kaplan moved the adoption of the president's report and is it your intention that it be referred to the Resolutions Committee?

MR. KAPLAN: Yes.

MRS. LEWIS: I second it.

MR. DOUGLAS: The motion is seconded by Mrs. Lewis. All those in favor signify by saying, "Aye." Those opposed by the like sign. The motion is carried. The gavel is back in your hand, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT BELT: Thank you very much. The next order of business is the reading of the communications, and I will ask the general secretary to read the report. This may not be the final report. Others may come up, but those that are pertinent at this time will you give them to us?

SECRETARY REAGAN: Several invitations have come in for the convention to be held next year at a different place, these will be presented at the appropriate time. But we have a letter at the moment which I will read. This is a letter from Mrs. Henderson of Columbus, Ohio. This is the first convention that she has missed in some 30 odd years. (And thereupon the secretary read Mrs. Henderson's letter.) We have a telegram from Frank C. Ross of Kansas City. (Thereupon the secretary read Frank C. Ross's telegram). We have also a telegram from H. W. Holzer of New York. (Thereupon the secretary read H. W. Holzer's telegram). That is all I have that would be appropriate to read at this time, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT BELT: Has anyone else any communications to present? (There was no answer). If there are no other communications, we will pass on to the next order of business, which is the report of the Committee on Papers. Now, the report of the Committee on Papers was given to me by Mr. Reagan and I will ask Mr. Reagan if he will please read the report?

SECRETARY REAGAN: Thank you, Mr. President.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON PAPERS

Herewith the report of the Committee on Papers for the 1946 Convention of the American Numismatic Association.

The nine papers sent in by the committee and now forwarded to you are:

Foreign Coin Collecting—Lyle Andrews

Ships on Coins and Medals—Richard T. Hooper

The Twenty-Cent Piece—Ted R. Hammer

Coinage of the Netherlands and Her Colonies 1940-1945—Paul F. Klaasesz

The Coinage of the Slovak Republic 1939-1844—Paul F. Klaasesz

U. S. Overseas Currency Notes Plentiful—Robert H. Lloyd

Bungtowns!—Earle D. Sherwood

Silver Dollars of French Provinces—A. E. Kelpsh
Early California Private Gold Issues—Edward Fogler

I have in addition a tenth one, half of which is completed and in my hands, the other half being promised shortly:

I wish to express my thanks to the members of my committee who helped assemble these: Prof. Guido Kisch of New York, Frederick S. Knobloch of New York, Howard Kurth of Schenectady, Mrs. Helen G. Lewis of Richmond, Va., Robert H. Lloyd of North Tonawanda, N. Y., Norman B. Mason of Toronto, Ont., Paul Pennington of Evanston, Ill., and Alfred Z. Reed of Colorado Springs, Colo.

I am sorry not to be able to attend the convention in person and wish for it all the success in the world.

Sincerely yours,

—JOHN S. DAVENPORT, Chairman

(The above Papers, read by Title, have been sent to the Editor for publication in THE NUMISMATIST, as space permits.—Ed.)

PRESIDENT BELT: Thank you, Mr. Secretary; you have heard the report of the Committee on Papers, what is your wish?

MR. GINTHER: I move that they be adopted and published in THE NUMISMATIST.

PRESIDENT BELT: It has been regularly moved and seconded. Are there any remarks?

MR. DOUGLAS: I have just one remark here. I assume it is the intention of the mover and the custom that this is not a mandatory order of the convention to publish every paper and the publishing in THE NUMISMATIST and the selection of the material must be continued in the hand of the editor.

PRESIDENT BELT: I take it that that is attached to the motion?

MR. GINTHER: And that the thanks of the convention go to the committee.

PRESIDENT BELT: And that the thanks go to the committee. All those in favor of the motion, say, "Aye." Those opposed the same sign. Thank you, gentlemen, the motion is carried. Now, we have completed the business of the morning as given to you by the program. I have some announcements to make, but we are going to be crowded in many instances on our time. We have to be out of here by 11:25, so, therefore, we have approximately one hour. Now, this convention is yours, you know, not mine, nor the officers. Would you like to change the procedure so that some of these other reports, like the officers' reports, might be heard? Would you like to have those come today? We can move them forward. Anything you folks want, but so far as the official part of the program is concerned, I am through with the exception of reading the announcements. Will somebody please make a motion? Let us do something.

MR. SHELDON: I move that if the time is available that we carry on and hear and dispose of such reports of the officers as may be possible, using such time at the Chair's discretion.

PRESIDENT BELT: You have heard the motion. Is there a second?

MRS. LEWIS: I second it.

PRESIDENT BELT: It has been moved and seconded that we carry on and hear whatever report of the officers as we may find time. All those in favor signify by saying "Aye." All those opposed by the same sign. The motion is carried. We will proceed on and take up what reports of the officers that we can. This order of business will be taken up in the regular order tomorrow. We have our general secretary here, and I think his report is one of our most important reports. In the official minutes that you have, or which you can get at the desk, the general secretary's report is in there and that is the official report so far as we are concerned at this time, but I would like to call upon the general secretary for any explanation which he may wish to make and for any additions he might like to make to you; and also bear in mind that while he is here and this report is being considered that he is subject to any questions you would like to ask, so, Mr. Reagan, if you would like to add anything, I would like to recognize you.

SECRETARY REAGAN: Mr. President, I have no particular comments to make in connection with my report. In accordance with past standards I have confined it to a statistical report in respect to our financial situations as they exist on the books of my office. I have carried a comparison of the corresponding figure for previous years, and in connection with the financial report the comparison in some cases is not a very fair one. Some of our expenses are not annual expenses. We can't operate always that way. We can't buy equipment or supplies in some cases from year to year just for one year's use. One or two minor typographical errors have been discovered by the auditing company and will be corrected in the publication of the report in THE NUMISMATIST. I think I will make no further comments, except to invite questions, if there are any.

- 1—The balance of the applications received during the year, about 300, were proposed by members whose names should appear in this section of the report. To conserve space and make the report as condensed as possible, these names are omitted, but with sincere appreciation for their interest in the Association and for assistance in the promotion of its growth and welfare.

INVENTORY OF A. N. A. PROPERTY in the Office of the General Secretary

A detailed Inventory of such property could not be prepared in time for inclusion in these Proceedings. The transfer of the office from New York to Kansas has resulted in some of the material still unpacked. The principal items in the Inventory would include all those listed in the 1945 Proceedings, except that no copies of the 1944 Membership Directory remain on hand. There is a somewhat larger supply of convention bars and membership buttons on hand. In addition, the principal new items are as follows: all of the dies used for the convention bars and membership buttons, the locks for the Exhibit Cases, 18 Numismatist Award Medals, 3 sections of steel shelving 36x18x84, about 3000 copies of the Library Catalog, about 1000 copies of back numbers of THE NUMISMATIST, and some additional 3x5 card files.

A detail Inventory will be submitted to the Executive Board on request and published later, if so ordered.

LEWIS M. REAGAN, General Secretary

PRESIDENT BELT: I believe you all have the copy of the general secretary's report, and you have heard the additional statements he has made. Do any of you have any questions you would like to ask in regard to this report? If there is no question on the part of anybody, I would like a motion that the report be approved.

MR. FOGLER: I make a motion that the report be approved as read.

MR. STEHFEST: I second it.

PRESIDENT BELT: The motion is made by Mr. Fogler that this report be accepted and referred to the Resolutions Committee, and I will accept yours, Mr. Stehfest, as a second.

MR. DOUGLAS: I fail to see any reason why that will require the action of the Resolutions Committee. I think the members should adopt an amendment that it be referred to the Auditing Committee.

MR. FOGLER: I meant that to the Auditing Committee.

PRESIDENT BELT: The reference is to the Auditing Committee instead of the Resolutions Committee. I think you said "auditing," and I said, "resolutions," therefore, the reference is to the Auditing Committee. Any other remarks? All in favor say, "Aye."—I am a little hard of hearing, folks. I wish you would all speak up on the good things and keep still on the bad ones—that's better. The motion is carried. Mr. Kortjohn represents the Kortjohn Company who audits the books, and I am going to ask him to please comment on the Treasurer's Report, also on his own report. Again I am going to say that if there are any questions I wish you would please feel free to ask them—Mr. Kortjohn.

MR. KORTJOHN: Thank you, Mr. President. Well, I have here these reports of the Secretary, Treasurer, and the Business Manager, and I think there is also the report of the Librarian. The motion just made was made to refer the report of the General Secretary to the Auditing Committee. Well, that was done a couple weeks ago, just after the close of the fiscal year of the Association on July 31. In fact, the Auditing Committee began its work as early as the middle of June, just to get a start, and it completed its work early in August, and we have a Financial Report that has been typed up, but unfortunately it could not be published at the same time that the officers' reports were completed, because they really had to precede the report of the auditor before the auditors could do their work. I am not going to spend much of your time to tell you what was done. The work that was examined was found to be all right, or these small errors that have been found were corrected in the meantime. I think about the only comments I could make are just to say that the Association now has assets of $62,000, which includes $37,000 of cost of bonds, which are now worth over $38,000 if we were to sell them immediately. It also includes some $24,000 of cash. The result of the operations of the Association for the entire year taken as a whole, mind you, that is the combination of the reports of the General Secretary, the Treasurer, and the Custodian of the Life Membership Funds, if you want to call them that, and also the Business Manager of THE NUMISMATIST that shows a total profit of $8,403.02, $8400.00. There is one red figure on this report and I might say that it might look at first glance that the Business Manager is not doing so well. That shows a loss here apparently of $2300.00, but that is no discredit to the Business Manager, because we don't give him credit in this set up for the income that he should really receive for subscriptions of the membership. We give that credit to the General Funds, and that is why he shows up so badly. Incidentally, it would appear that the printing costs are the real reason for the red figure. They have risen considerably during the last year, and it appears also that they are going to rise still more in the next year. I don't know how we are going to help that, but aside from that that is about all I would like to say to you, Mr. President. (Applause.)

AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the President and Members of the American Numismatic Association:

In compliance with your instructions, we have made an examination of the books of your General Secretary, Treasurer, and Business Manager, and of the accounts of your Director of Publicity and Librarian, for the fiscal year ended July 31, 1946. We present herewith the following statements:

- Exhibit A—Balance Sheet as at July 31, 1946
- Exhibit B—Comparative Statement of Income and Expenses—General Transactions for the Fiscal Years ended July 31, 1946, and July 31, 1945
- Exhibit C—Comparative Statement of Income and Expenses—Numismatist Transactions for the Fiscal Years ended July 31, 1946, and July 31, 1945
- Exhibit D—Statement of Transactions in the Life Membership Fund

Our auditing work was done in part during June and was completed during August. Due to the earlier examination, and with the cooperation of all the officers involved, it was possible to make all the necessary verifications and to prepare this completed report in time for the convention. For this cooperation we wish to thank the officers. All errors discovered have been corrected. The cash on hand and the unexpended balances were acknowledged by the persons holding such funds. The cash in the checking accounts of both the Treasurer and the General Secretary was verified by correspondence with the depositaries, with the exception of the account at the Fourth National Bank in Wichita, the accountability for the amount in which is acknowledged by Mr. Reagan. The balances in the savings bank accounts were compared with the savings bank pass books. The accountability of the Business Manager for his $500 balance is also acknowledged. The investments consisting of $40,000 in face value of government bonds are shown on a certificate furnished by the custodian, The Chase National Bank. Market and redemption values are given as at July 31, 1946. No verification was made of the deposit on the mail permit paid for during April and July 1946.

No liabilities are shown on the Balance Sheet. There is, however, an unpaid bill of undetermined amount for printing the August NUMISMATIST. No liability was shown for similar printing at the end of the preceding fiscal year and it should be noted that the profit and loss statement for THE NUMISMATIST includes twelve monthly bills. The $900 inventory of paper estimated by Mr. Douglas is the paper on hand prior to the printing of the August issue. Thus, the entire cost of printing and mailing this issue should be shown as a liability but is not so shown in conformity with the practice of several years past.

Under the title of net worth is shown the balance of net worth used in the auditor's report rendered last year, the results of operations for the fiscal year ended July 31, 1946, and the net worth at July 31, 1946. This procedure indicates the correctness of the total net income figures based on the correctness of the assets amounting to $62,010.31 shown in the same statement. Further details on the manner of arriving at the amount of the net profits are shown in the remaining statements of the report. It will be noted that the statement of the transactions of the Life Membership Fund does not include the names of the new life members as heretofore, but such information may undoubtedly be obtained from the annual reports of the officers.

In conclusion we wish to extend our thanks to the various officers for their courtesies in assisting our office during the course of the examination.

Respectfully submitted,

MARTIN KORTJOHN & COMPANY

PRESIDENT BELT: You have heard the fine report of our auditor in reference to the Treasurer's Report. I am going to take them up separately. What is your wish?

MR. KATEN: I move they be accepted.

PRESIDENT BELT: Mr. Katen moves that they be accepted and referred to the Auditing Committee.

MR. YEOMAN: I second it.

PRESIDENT BELT: Mr. Yeoman seconds the motion. All in favor say, "Aye." Those opposed by the same sign. The motion is carried. I just wanted to say one word in connection with this report. The cost of publishing THE NUMISMATIST and putting that out, I believe, is our largest expense, is that not correct? Our largest individual expense is the magazine that we furnish you. I think it would be of interest to know that the cost of publishing that magazine and putting it in circulation increased approximately 50% last year. Now, a year or two more of that increase would make the $3.00 dues that we now pay almost totally inadequate to take care of it. I do not anticipate any such thing. I am not mentioning it for that purpose, but I want to call your attention to the thing. I have had so many letters in regard to that. I had just one recently stating, and this is not pertinent at all, but except that it gets to this situation. I am not referring to the man, but he objected to the advertising in THE NUMISMATIST—couldn't see why it couldn't be eliminated because all he was interested in was the reading matter. Well, the advertising matter last year—if we had not had any—we would be in the red a whole lot more, because as Mr. Kortjohn said, the publishing last year would have cost us a whole lot more. So, there are other things to be taken into consideration, and when we pull down on pages and cut down on pages, those things are all reflected in the figures. I just mention it as a side light. It is not an easy problem. There are many other things that have to be taken into consideration. I believe while we are close to this subject I will ask Mr. Saxton, as Business Manager, for his comment. Mr. Saxton, will you please come up here and give us your report?

MR. SAXTON: What I have to say is very brief. I think the statement of the Business Manager, including that of the editor, speaks for itself very thoroughly. I would be very glad to answer any questions any of you may have if I can relative to the advertising section particularly. (No answer.) They seem to be satisfied. It might be of interest to the members to know something of the increase in advertising. You all know that the advertising section has grown steadily since my own connection. I am not speaking of anything before that, beginning at the first of January, 1943, the advertising collections were $5956.00, etc.

BURTON H. SAXTON, Business Manager
STUART MOSHER, Editor

MR. SAXTON: I have one confession to make of which I am very much ashamed and I feel it should be made here, Mr. President, nevertheless. That is, in relation to bad accounts, so brace yourselves for a shock. I am in the red in the sum of $4.00. (Laughter) I think that is the extent of my comments, Mr. President; if no one has any further questions or comment, I will close. I thank you.

PRESIDENT BELT: I feel sorry for you, and I know how much you are embarrassed to admit the loss of that $4.00.

MR. BAUER: In connection with the gentleman who wanted to eliminate advertising, I am wondering if the advertising is stationary. The price and the membership is increasing, and if that space isn't more valuable as we get more members, why not increase the price of the ad and that will take care of some of the expansion of advertising which we are afraid of at the present time?

PRESIDENT BELT: I think that is a very excellent suggestion and it will be undoubtedly taken up by the Board of Governors, Mr. Bauer. I will tell you that last year we did raise the price of advertising and since then our membership has increased, the number of magazines we put out has increased, the cost of production has increased and I think the Board will take the matter up, Mr. Bauer.. As I have told you, this is your convention, and if anyone has a suggestion to make relative to the cost of advertising, will they please take it up with the Resolutions Committee and it will be submitted on the floor for you.

MR. PORTER: I am merely a member, and I am not a dealer. I don't advertise, but if the advertisements are eliminated from THE NUMISMATIST they should reduce the price of the subscription, because I read everyone of them, and because that is part of the value of the magazine. (Applause)

PRESIDENT BELT: I can assure you without any further comments that the advertising will not be eliminated unless you people order it. We are not going to put you in the red unless you people order it. Mr. Douglas wishes to make a few remarks on this subject.

MR. DOUGLAS: What I have in mind to do is to call your attention to some things. Some of you may not have stopped to think about the things that have happened in our war-time years, and the changes that have come about and in the problems of publishing your monthly magazine. Mr. Saxton told you about the advertising side of it. You can realize that the job of handling an advertising section which two years ago was running 35 or 45 pages of advertising and doing the mechanical part of the job of printing a magazine of 4,000 copies was simpler and could be handled much more easily than the problem of turning out a magazine which in March hit an all-time peak of 160 pages and a printing of about 7500 copies of the magazine. The printing problem has about doubled. The advertising hit a peak of 91 pages, which is about 110 or 115% more work. So, that a year and one-half ago since the last Chicago convention, the job of getting THE NUMISMATIST out which did at that time revolve entirely on one man has been split into three parts. One part of it is a very easy part. Two parts, the editorial work and the advertising part of it, are extremely onerous, both of them, and they are now being handled as you know—the advertising part of it by Mr. Saxton, the editorial part of it by Stuart Mosher, and the subscription part by your General Secretary. The former one-man job has been split into three parts, and a kind of a fourth part of the third part is the simplest of it all. The handling by the printer and the coordinating of the three other parts has fallen on your first vice president's shoulders, which hasn't been too onerous, except that our printer is a grand country printer in a very nice clean country town of Federalsburg, Maryland, located about opposite Annapolis in the center of the eastern shore of Maryland. The printers walk from the plant when the whistle blows at lunch to their homes. They walk back a half hour or an hour later and take their places, and it is a very nice small printing plant run by a 78 year old southern gentleman, J. W. Stowell. He is as honest a man as the day is long. His overhead consists of himself and his son. They don't type letters, they write them in long hand and they don't bother to keep copies of letters. It is good, old-fashioned country American printing. Now, his problems have been considerably increased, considering that we have substantially increased the number of pages that he has to print and doubled the quantity that he has to print. Some increase in the time which elapsed after the first of the month until you get into your hands a copy of THE NUMISMATIST is accounted for by that increase in the production in a small printing plant. I have talked to publishers and printers of other magazines and they say that with the terrific load on their bigger plants they are having that same difficulty, unless it would be a national magazine that owns their own plant or controls their own plant. Our business is important to Mr. Stowell. It represents about 15 to 20% of his volume. I think he has done an excellent job of meeting the situation. However, he hasn't been able to get the paper. As your president said, it's fallen on us to scout the country looking for paper. In my opinion, coated paper is getting more difficult to obtain every month, and has ever since V-J Day. If you stop to think about it, it is not too hard to understand why. War-time controls on the use of paper made paper reasonably obtainable. V-J Day our administration says, "All right, the war is over; we will hurry back to normalcy."

The committee on economic development of the United States all during the last two or three years of the war has actively promoted the thinking and planning by business all over the country of increased sales efforts to be timed with V-J Day to release floods of buying to lick the immediate post-war slump of business. Everybody's planning thought of the slump when the war was over, and as usual America does just the opposite of what everybody thinks it will do. Instead of slowing down, business took hold and we are now producing more and we have fuller employment right now than we did V-J Day and that means machine-coated paper and machine-coated paper is what business solicits its customers on. Magazines all over the country are competing with us and on our little 3,000 lb. of paper we need every month for the present size magazine. If anybody has any influence with any manufacturer of machine-coated paper and can get us some 50 lb. stock, which is what we are using now, his name should go up on a gold star. I want to tell you briefly about Stuart Mosher and present to you, from him, at his personal request, his regret of not being able to come to this convention. Stuart is just in the throes of moving his wife and two kids and himself to Texas and he just didn't feel that it was possible for him to come out here to the Convention and meet you. His report, he told me, has been in your hands in series month by month through the year. He solicits your reaction to his report; that is, the features that have been inaugurated under his editorship in THE NUMISMATIST. He welcomes and solicits your comments and your suggestions for things you don't like, for things you do like, and for suggestions of things you would like to see tried. He asked me to impress upon you that it's your magazine. He has ideas that he has been putting into effect and he would like some closer way of feeling your pulse and seeing how you liked it. As a result of a good many suggestions asking for it a few months ago, he tried for your convenience, reader convenience, a listing on the cover. He has had a great many favorable comments on it. He has had a few who feel that it detracts from the appearance of the cover and they don't find, that is, to the few, that it gives them much convenience. I think he tells me his fan mail has been about 50 to 1 in favor of the change. If you haven't commented on it but have decided on it, let Stuart hear. He wanted me to thank all the membership for the splendid way in which they have cooperated with him in submitting to the magazine their numismatic articles and contributions without which we would have no NUMISMATIST, and I assure you of his appreciation for that cooperation. As you have observed, the financial report of the Editor is included with that of the Business Manager. However, we have the general report of the Editor which would be appropriate to read at this time.

REPORT OF THE EDITOR

While the task of getting out THE NUMISMATIST during the last year was made difficult by various technical obstacles, the splendid cooperation of contributors, the officers of the A. N. A., and J. W. Stowell our printer, made the work a pleasurable one.

Our first Vice President, Damon G. Douglas has worked untiringly in order to coordinate my duties with the problems confronting the printer and without his valuable help my work would have been indeed difficult. For the last two years, the paper shortage has been (and still is) acute, but Mr. Douglas has always managed to get an adequate supply of fairly good grade paper.

The awarding of prizes to outstanding contributors has brought about results that are most gratifying. Several feature articles of outstanding merit are awaiting publication; two dozen short articles are at hand, and several collectors are at work on articles which should prove to be important contributions to numismatics.

From time to time, favorable comment is received on the unheralded departments such as Notes & Queries, and the pages conducted by the president, secretary, editor, and librarian. In my opinion, these should remain as permanent features.

Due to lack of cooperation on the part of dealers, "Notes of the Trade," has been temporarily discontinued.

A list of all those who have facilitated my work would be too lengthy to include in this report but there are some whose help must be recognized. Foremost is my wife, Edith, who in addition to giving me advice and assistance, never complained of the time I devoted to my editorial work.

Others who have been a continual source of guidance and help and who have never refused their fullest cooperation, include: Joseph Barnett, V. Leon Belt, George H. Blake, F. C. C. Boyd, Vernon L. Brown, Dudley Butler, Wm. L. Clark, Lillard W. Culver, Ted R. Hammer, H. W. Holzer, James J. Curto, O. P. Eklund, Loyd B. Gettys, Dr. J. Hewitt Judd, Frank J. Katen, Martin F. Kortjohn, Abe Kosoff, Ernest Kraus, Sawyer Mc. Mosser, Dr. Dean Miltimore, R. I. Nesmith, Sydney P. Noe, Gilbert S. Perez, Dr. A. F. Pradeau, Wayte Raymond, Lewis M. Reagan, C. H. Ryan, Burton H. Saxton, Hans Schulman, J. & M. Stack, J. W. Stowell, Charles M. Wormser, Richard S. Yeoman, and Farran Zerbe.

There are others whose help should be recognized. The officials of the U. S. Mint and Treasury Department have been most cooperative as also have been the officials of various foreign mints.

All of the foregoing persons and departments mentioned have aided in the editing of THE NUMISMATIST.

Respectfully submitted,

STUART MOSHER, Editor

PRESIDENT BELT: Thank you, Mr. Douglas, for a very fine report and remarks. What do you wish to do with the report of the Editor?

DR. SHERMAN: I move the report be accepted.

DR. JUDD: I second it.

PRESIDENT BELT: Well, I see we have two doctors here with us. It has been regularly moved and seconded. Are there any remarks? (No answer) All in favor signify by saying, "Aye." Those opposed by the same sign. The motion is carried. I have an announcement or two to make. I have been requested to announce that there will be a meeting of the American Coin Dealers Association at 1:30 today at the Mirror Room. It is the room in which the district secretaries met today and had breakfast and, by the way, we had a very wonderful turn out and a very fine meeting. The chairman of the Revisions Committee has asked me to announce that the chairman of the committee on the revision of the constitution and by-laws has requested that all persons having any suggestions or criticisms with respect to the proposed draft should meet with the committee at 8:00 P. M. tonight in Room 408 of this hotel, so that each suggestion may be discussed in private. Turning to tomorrow's business session, I wish to say one word on behalf of your officers in regard to the copies of this revision. We had ordered these copies made in the way of a reprint as they appeared in the magazine. Unfortunately, we discovered Sunday that these were not here. So, this morning we started the wheels going to have them printed here by, I believe, Offset Printing, and they will be available tomorrow morning at the registration desk, and I wish you would all pick them up because it is very important that you have them in connection with the consideration of this affair. We are very, very sorry about it, but it is a matter we cannot help, so if you have any suggestions to make, if there is anything you want to talk about, anything in connection with this affair, please go to Room 408 at 8:00 o'clock this evening. That will be immediately following the Smorgasbord, which is at 6:30 P. M. One other announcement, immediately following the close of this meeting and for as many hours as is possible the Resolutions Committee will be in session at Room 714 and would be very happy to have you appear there to give them ideas or suggestions which you would like to have heard before this convention.

SECRETARY REAGAN: Yes. It is important that in addition to your registration with the local committee that you register on the official register of the General Secretary. I will reopen for business out here in a few minutes, and we would like to have a complete record of the attendance at this meeting. There is no charge for registration, and it is essential that you stop a moment and register with me, if you will, please. All proxies or ballots have to pass through my hands before they go to the committee. One thing more, it is customary to authorize the General Secretary to deliver to the Elections Committee such ballots as are on hand prior to the actual closing date. Are there any objections that the General Secretary be authorized to transfer to the Chairman of the Election Committee all ballots that have been cast so far, and to the Proxy Committee all proxies which have and will be received? (The foregoing was a general statement and there were no objections.)

TUESDAY MORNING SESSION

PRESIDENT BELT: I am very sorry, ladies and gentlemen, for this 12 minute delay. The matter was entirely my fault, but I found it necessary to take care of a little business at the last minute, and if you will please excuse me, why, we will proceed. I wonder if the Sgt. at Arms is available?

SGT. AT ARMS WERNER: Right here.

PRESIDENT BELT: Mr. Sgt. at Arms, will you please come up here? I have been requested to make a presentation to you on behalf of the 49'ers Club. (Laughter)

SGT. AT ARMS WERNER: (The Sgt. is presented a holster and gun by the president.) Wait a minute, I draw from the left.

PRESIDENT BELT: They feel in all due courtesy to hold your position you should be suitably set up here.

SGT. AT ARMS WERNER: What is this, an initiation?

PRESIDENT BELT: I don't know how this goes, but there you are. (Applause) Now, irrespective of the 49'ers Club, it is ordered by the Association, whom I have the pleasure of representing, that during all the hours of the business session you should be in costume.

SGT. AT ARMS WERNER: I don't believe this Association really needs this outfit. After all, they are all the same—they are a bunch of kids.

PRESIDENT BELT: In view of the fact that what he says is true, we are just a bunch of kids, this is just a toy gun.

SGT. AT ARMS WERNER: This will be my tenth convention. It's all right, boys, behave yourselves. Thanks a lot. (Applause) Must I wear this during the session?

PRESIDENT BELT: Yes, sir, during the business session. Yes, sir, you must be at the door. We have got to quell these unruly guys.

SGT. AT ARMS WERNER: Do I need a permit for this also?

PRESIDENT BELT: No, you don't need a permit for a toy gun, so it's all right. For the first order of business this morning we will hear the report of the Credentials Committee.

CREDENTIAL COMMITTEE'S REPORT

To the American Numismatic Association in Convention assembled in Davenport, Iowa this 20th day of August, 1946.

President, Officers and Members:

Having duly inspected the official register, we find more than the necessary quorum of eleven are present. Therefore, the Assembly is officially empowered to transact business.

EDWARD FOGLER, Chairman
ERNEST MOORE
MICHAEL A. POWILLS

PRESIDENT BELT: You have heard the report of the Credentials Committee. What is your pleasure?

MR. KAPLAN: I move its adoption.

MR. WILSON: I second it.

PRESIDENT BELT: You have heard the motion and the second. Are there any remarks? If not, all in favor say, "Aye." Those opposed by the same sign. It is passed. Now, ladies and gentlemen, unfortunately this Credentials Committee report should have been made yesterday. It was overlooked by your Chair by reason of the fact that it has been misplaced in the order of business as shown by the official bulletin. I am not offering that as an excuse. I am willing to accept the entire responsibility. It was purely an unintentional oversight on my part, and in order to correct that oversight and to make the business of yesterday official, will someone from the floor please make a motion that all that portion of official business which was transacted yesterday be officially reapproved today?

MR. SAXTON: I so move, Mr. President.

MRS. LEWIS: I second it.

PRESIDENT BELT: I have the motion from Mr. Saxton and a second from Mrs. Lewis. Do I hear any remarks? All those in favor say, "Aye." Those opposed the same sign. The motion is carried. Thank you. I am sorry. Now, the first order of business this morning, we hope we will get it straight today, will be the taking up of the report of the Librarian-Curator, and I am going to sort of give this to you a little piecemeal, if I may. The official report, or at least a portion of the official report, is included in the annual reports, a copy of which you have, but the statistical part of that report is not shown on here because it runs into too much detail, but that should be and will be considered a part of the Librarian-Curator's report. And in addition to that, and before we take any action on this, we have with us today the representative from our Librarian-Curator, Mrs. Hammer. I think really she does all of the work, but we will have to say she is the assistant to the Librarian-Curator, and I believe she has some additional remarks which she would like to make, and so then we will include it all together if you please.

MRS. HAMMER: First, I would like to tell you Mr. Hammer is very sorry he couldn't be here at this meeting. It was just impossible for him to get away. There were too many things piled up at the office. The only thing I would like to add is his report on the reprints of THE NUMISMATIST. As you probably know, there have been five reprints that have been published right now, and they are for sale through our office. There have been ten copies of copper coins of Norway sold to members and sixty to dealers. Aluminum coins, fifteen to members and sixteen to dealers. War prisoner money and metals, fifteen copies to members and sixteen to dealers. Heraldry, fifteen copies to members and sixteen to dealers. Copper coins of Denmark and Her Possessions, twenty-eight copies to members and sixteen to dealers, making a total of 165 copies that have been sold so far and we have just started selling them, so we have a large quantity available. (Applause.)

REPORT OF THE LIBRARIAN-CURATOR For 1945-1946

To Officers and Members of the American Numismatic Association in Convention Assembled at Davenport, Iowa,

GREETINGS:

I am happy to report that the library showed another substantial gain in book circulation during the fiscal year 1945-1946, which closed August 1, 1946. There was a total of 1,520 books borrowed, an all time high for the library. The number of orders totaled 701. Only a few years ago, 701 would have been a large figure for the total number of books loaned for an entire year. A new record was set for 1944-1945 when circulation reached 1,225 books, having passed the 1,000 mark. This year's 701 loans went to more than 500 different members. New York state led in the number of books borrowed by members with 170, Illinois was second with 141 and California third with 140. The Wayte Raymond publication, Standard Paper Money Catalogue led in popularity, the three copies being out constantly. Books on large cents, always popular, remained in great demand, while Crosby's Coins of Early America continued in demand.

The library during the year set up a service for clubs (corporate members) under which a club may borrow an assortment of books for a month for use of members. The reprint sale service also was added during July. The officers at the New York meeting showed greater foresight than the librarian by setting aside a special fund for the purchase of duplicates. The duplicates were needed greatly during the year and eliminated many delays in shipments to members.

Mail from non-members (queries referred by governmental agencies) totaled 648; queries from members, app. 80; letters written (exclusive of replies to foregoing) 384; letters received, 304; books bound, 48; books bound by librarian, 136; donations, 55; books purchased, 40.

We are sorry to have to include in this report the announcement of the loss of five books—more than were lost in our previous five years' total. Perhaps it is no co-incidence that two were works of the librarian, Notes on the Fractional Currency Shield and Notes on Dimes and Their Designers, both from THE NUMISMATIST. A copy of the Hazeltime Type Table was lost en route to a member. The book, Toughra as Found on Coins, by Howland Wood, was reported returned with other books by a member whose past record is excellent and in whose statement we have explicit faith. The book, Historical Guide to New Brunswick, is likewise lost. Another work, the new Schulman $1 catalogue, was lost by a book binder, and may still show up. A single copy of THE NUMISMATIST was damaged so greatly in transit, the borrower was unable to use it. It appeared to have been run over by a street car.

Receipts from the treasury totaled $300 and there was a balance of $89 from the previous year. Expenditures totaled $305.36 exclusive of special purchases of books and binding from the fund set aside by the board last summer in New York.

The need for new bookcases has increased greatly and we hope to add one or two during the next year, now that they are available once more. There also are several other books we wish to obtain.

As in other years, a few members failed to return postage. Seven members failed to return postage (according to our records) amounting to $1.28. An Ohio member kept a book several months and failed to acknowledge our requests for information. Upon receipt of a registered letter, he returned the book but did not reimburse the office for the postage.

We wish to thank members who have taken the trouble to give suggestions. We particularly wish to thank President Belt, Secretary Reagan, Editor Mosher, Richard Yeoman and many others who have helped us frequently during the year. On behalf of the entire A. N. A., we thank donors for the fine material added to the library.

Respectfully submitted,

T. R. HAMMER, Librarian-Curator

PRESIDENT BELT: Thank you, Mrs. Hammer. I am sure that we enjoyed that report from you much more than we would have from Ted. (Laughter) But we will consider it as Ted's report and add that to the official report of the Librarian. Now, do I hear a motion including all of this into one?

MR. WICK: I so move.

MR. GREEN: I second it.

PRESIDENT BELT: The motion has been made and seconded that the report of the Librarian-Curator be approved. Any remarks? All those in favor say, "Aye"; opposed the same sign. The motion is carried. Entirely beside the point and not connected with this, I want to say that I believe in this type of report that Mr. Hammer has just made, that a very fine departure has been made from our accepted and usual procedure and I call attention to it, because I would like to see it adopted in the future. Whenever in the past in most instances where reports are made and as I did myself in my reports, we put in the things we wish to say and the objections we wish to make and the recommendations we wish to make and we present it as a conglomeration of the whole. And in Mr. Hammer's case he has made his report and then he took the trouble to draw resolutions separate and distinct from his report which he has presented directly to the Resolutions Committee, and I think it is a very fine way to handle it instead of a motion from the floor that it be accepted and referred, and I would like to see that program followed in the future. I will do it so far as I am concerned and I hope that the other officers will do the same. I believe that that concludes the reports of the officers unless I have overlooked someone. If not, we will go on to the next order of business. Now, with your kind permission I would like to change the order of business slightly. At this point the next thing is the report of the Resolutions Committee, and I would like to change that to the report of the committee on revisions of the constitution and by-laws. My purpose and reason for making that switch is because whatever may or may not be done in regard to the reports of the Constitutional Revision Committee, it would have a great deal of bearing upon the activities of the Resolutions Committee, and I believe there is no use in complicating the matter any more than we have to, and we will save a great deal of time by the change. Is there any objection to that being done? Hearing none, that will be the order. My attention has been called asking for a report of the Proxy Committee before I do that, so that in case there should be any vote to be cast, we would know what the nature of that would be, and I believe that is a point well taken for the information of everyone. If the Proxy Committee is ready to make a preliminary report at this time, we will hear from the chairman of the Proxy Committee first. Is the chairman of the Proxy Committee here?

MR. SHELBY: Mr. President, with your permission I would like to ask another member to read that report.

PRESIDENT BELT: The request is granted, and one of the members of the committee, Mr. Kaufman, will make the report.

MR. KAUFMAN: I submit the report for your approval.

PRESIDENT BELT: The report of the Proxy Committee has just been read. What is your pleasure?

MRS. LEWIS: I move its adoption.

PRESIDENT BELT: Do I hear a second?

MR. STEHFEST: I second it.

PRESIDENT BELT: I have a motion from Mrs. Lewis and I have a second from Mr. Stehfest that the report be approved. Are there any remarks? All in favor say, "Aye"; those opposed by the same sign. The motion is carried and duly approved. Now, I want to announce that all the proxies should be turned in to your General Secretary and the final report of the Proxy Committee will be called for early in the business session of tomorrow morning. So, if you have any additional proxies get them into the hands of your General Secretary as soon as possible. I wish also to announce that the ballot closes tonight at 6:00 o'clock. Get the ballots, if you have any, into the hands of your General Secretary, because any received after 6:00 o'clock tonight will not be counted. I wish also while I am making these announcements to say that on point eight of your order of business that the nominations close at 12:00 o'clock noon of this day. I mention this particularly, because there seems to be some misapprehension as to exactly what that means. Our constitution provides that nominations should be made in a certain way and at a time so that they can be completed at a certain time prior to the convention. It also provides that in case there is no proper nomination for that office at that time, then in that case nominations can be made until some time of the convention. By reason of the fact that there was a complete slate legally named there and within the time prescribed, this ceases to have any value whatsoever. So, it is just simply put in there, but it has no meaning and is not of any value. I do mention that simply as a matter of explanation so that there will be no misunderstanding. The nominations for offices of those on which you can vote has been finished for some 45 days, when the ballot was closed on July 2 when the ballot was full and so that ends it all together. Now, I believe we will hear if we may from the chairman of the Revision Committee, Mr. Schwartz.

MR. SCHWARTZ: Mr. President and officers and members of the Numismatic Association, on behalf of the committee for the revision of the constitution and by-laws, I beg to call your attention to the fact that we have already submitted a report which was published in the July issue of THE NUMISMATIST which I believe you all have received, but not because it has been the custom this morning, but because of the exigencies of the occasion we do wish to submit a further report. I think I was remiss in the report in not making a matter of record the names of those officers and members who have been most helpful to the committee in its deliberations, and at this moment I would like to rectify that omission and on behalf of the committee we wish to publicly thank your President, Mr. Belt, your Secretary, Mr. Reagan, the members of the Board, Mr. Gettys, Mr. Judd, and Mr. Douglas, and your Business Manager, Mr. Saxton, for the very valuable aid which they have given this committee in making its deliberations. I trust that each of you has been given this morning a copy of this photo offset reproduction of the by-laws. We have continually through our office solicited suggestions, criticisms, constructive or otherwise, from the members of the American Numismatic Association. We had received a great deal of that prior to the publication of our preliminary report, but much more we realize can be done face to face, and we have received as well a number of suggestions during the time we have been in Davenport, and after this report had been published. As a result of the suggestions we have five changes to make in our report.

With respect to Article II, Section 5, Sub-division, "d" which has reference to the dues of life members, we submit as part of our report the following section: "Sub-section 'd,' life members, $75.00, payment of which shall relieve such member of any future dues except that up to and including December 31, 1946, such dues shall be $50.00." We are not considering that now. I am submitting that as part of my report. With respect to Article III, Section 2, our report reads with respect to the last sentence of that section, the sentence starting, "Any member suspended," we suggest that it read as follows: "Any member who has resigned or has been suspended for non-payment of dues may be reinstated upon payment of all arrearages or a reinstatement fee of $3.00, whichever is less, and provided that no charges are pending against him, and in such case only if charges are withdrawn or dismissed."

With respect to Article IV, Section 8, the first paragraph of that section, we now recommend it should read: "The Executive Board shall consist of the President, First Vice-President, and the Board of Governors." From there on the matter in that paragraph is okay.

PRESIDENT BELT: Does everyone have that question? May I ask as a matter of point, whether that is substantially the same as the present?

MR. SCHWARTZ: That is exactly the same as the present time constitution. With respect to Article VI, Section 2, the second sentence of that paragraph which starts, "The duties of the," we suggest it should read, "The duties of the Business Manager shall be to supervise all matters relating to advertising in the official magazine and to furnish copies thereof to those members and non-members entitled thereto." Our attention was called to the fact that due to a last minute change that was suggested by the editor just before this matter went to press in which some matter was deleted, the word "therein" was left hanging without anything to define, so we are merely inserting, "In the official magazine" in place of the word, "therein."

PRESIDENT BELT: Do you all have that correction? Go ahead.

MR. SCHWARTZ: With respect to Article VIII, Section 5, we suggest that section read as follows, "These by-laws may be amended or altered at a convention of the Association by a two-thirds vote of the members present or represented by proxy and the approval by a majority of the Board of Governors," instead of, "of the Executive Board." I don't want to take your time to discuss any of these changes, nor our report as a whole at the present moment, except to thank your President for having given me and the members of my committee the opportunity to be of such service to you as we could render. Thank you, sir. (Applause)

PRESIDENT BELT: Ladies and gentlemen, you have in your possession the report of the Committee on the revision of the constitution and by-laws, and you have heard the further remarks of the Chairman of that committee relative to the changes, I presume in the nature of amendments or a supplement report, whichever one you please and it has been presented. What is your wish?

SECRETARY REAGAN: I move the approval of the report of the committee on the revision of the constitution and by-laws, with thanks.

MR. VON RHEIN: I second that motion.

PRESIDENT BELT: It has been regularly moved by Mr. Reagan and seconded by Mr. Von Rhein. It is up for discussion.

VOICES: Question.

PRESIDENT BELT: I have been requested to clarify the situation so that everyone will know exactly what the position of the Chair is. You are in connection with this motion approving, or disapproving, the report. You are not adopting the report as a new constitution and by-laws. Immediately following the approval, then it will be submitted for us for adoption, and that will be the position of the Chair unless somebody wishes to make it otherwise.

PRESIDENT BELT: It has been regularly moved and seconded. All those in favor say, "Aye;" all those opposed by the same sign. Motion is carried. Now, the Chair is open for a motion to adopt the rules and regulations.

SECRETARY REAGAN: I move the adoption of this report as the new by-laws of the association. I make that motion partly because I am more concerned with this than anyone else. These are mostly rules for the operation of my own office.

MR. VON RHEIN: I again second that motion.

PRESIDENT BELT: We have the same situation again. Mr. Reagan has made the motion that the report be adopted as the by-laws of this association. Now, you are voting directly on this, and the second has been made by Mr. Von Rhein who seconded the other motion. Now, the matter is open for remarks, and I believe in this connection I am going to grant the floor to Mr. Saxton, whom I believe wishes to plead a matter. Thank you for your consideration.

MR. SAXTON: Thank you, Mr. President, I want to offer an amendment to Article III of Section 4, I believe it is—no, Section 3 of Article V. My reason for offering that amendment is this, I have been a member of the association since 1907. It covers quite a period. Everyone of those years, I, in common with other members, received ballots on which were listed many names of men of whom I had no knowledge whatsoever. I think that it is a common experience with hundreds of our members. Now, that we have upwards of 6,000 members I think it would be a common experience of a few thousand at least, that we know nothing of them, perhaps a little by hearsay, nothing definite. Not only do I believe something should be done to correct that absence of information which would allow us to vote intelligently, not only is it a convenience and a welcome bit of cooperation to the members, but because I believe that the members have a right to that information and to cure that situation, at least largely, I have this amendment to offer. The section to be amended reads as follows; this is Article V, Section 3, "Upon receipt of such nominations, the General Secretary shall cause them to be published in the official magazine, together with the action of the nominees thereon." Now, my amendment would interpolate one sentence there as follows: "The General Secretary shall secure and publish in that issue of THE NUMISMATIST in which appears a list of those who accepted nominations to office, a brief biography of each such nominee, not exceeding 100 words, which shall include a record of his services to the Association or to Numismatics." Then the next sentence in that completing the section, "Nominations shall close sixty (60) days prior to the opening date of the convention. Nominations shall include only those," etc. . . .

MR. SAXTON: I move the adoption of that amendment, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT BELT: It has been moved, and I will grant the floor to Mr. Damon Douglas.

MR. DOUGLAS: I rise for the purpose of seconding Mr. Saxton's motion, and I would like to add a word of explanation. I would like to explain that I would not be in favor of this amendment had it not been discussed ahead of time with the Revision Committee and not been opposed by the committee. The committee felt a bit open-minded on the subject. It did not feel that that committee ought to propose it, but it did not request us not to make these suggestions. I think it has merit, and I think of my own experience. On the first ballot that I received as a new member in the American Numismatic Association I could only vote geographically, I knew nothing about any names, I didn't know one of them, I could only vote geographically or flip a nickel. I think of our 6,000, possibly more, who are interested in the governing of the Association and what better results might come from a little more acquaintanceship with the officers whom they are entrusting to run their affairs, and I think it would be a healthy thing, and I favor its adoption.

PRESIDENT BELT: Now, the motion for the adoption of the amendment has been seconded and it is open for discussion. Now, please if you wish to discuss this matter confine your discussion wholly to the amendment that is before you at this time.

SECRETARY REAGAN: Mr. President, since I would be directly involved in the operation of this section I would just make this remark. I am in favor of this for obvious reasons that have already been presented. But I can recognize one handicap in its execution and that is if something is to be published in THE NUMISMATIST there is a deadline, and I would not want to delay the publication of such material as I had on hand while awaiting a biography from one of the candidates. I would want to feel free to publish those that were received and feel that I had completed my duties if one or two were omitted that had not come in. I should think the way to do it would be to require such a biography or whatever is to be published to be accompanied by any accepted nomination so that there would be no nomination except one that was accompanied by the sort of thing that was to be published. I think I would insist on that and I would favor it on those terms.

PRESIDENT BELT: Mr. Kaufman has the floor.

MR. KAUFMAN: I would like for Mr. Saxton to read the proposed sentence.

PRESIDENT BELT: You mean the amendment.

MR. SAXTON: The General Secretary shall secure and publish in that issue of THE NUMISMATIST a brief biography of such nominee, not exceeding 100 words which shall include a record of his services to the Association or to numismatics.

THE EDITOR'S CORNER

Striking of 10 Million Medals Delays Coinage of Proofs

Dear Sir:

My attention has been called to "The Editor's Corner" in the July issue of your magazine where you pointed out that the Mints were manufacturing coins for foreign governments and were not making proof coins.

I am sorry that we did not make it clear in our letter of May 16 that the work on medals for the armed forces precluded the Mint from manufacturing proof coins. As you no doubt are aware, proof coins are struck on the same presses used for the manufacture of medals. We do not strike them on the regular coining presses and, therefore, your reference to foreign coinage has no bearing on the subject. The fact is we have coining presses that are not operating full time in the western Mints. San Francisco, for example, is operating on a one shift basis and Denver on only two. If it were possible to strike a proof coin on coinage presses we should be glad to strike them at the western Mints with our idle coinage capacity.

We have orders for over 10 million medals for the armed forces and I believe that you and all the coin collectors will agree with the Mint's policy that medals for the boys who did the fighting should come before proof coins.

I hope that you will see your way clear to correct the erroneous impression that the Mint is producing foreign coins which, in turn, precludes the making of proof coins. It would be a physical impossibility to satisfactorily produce a proof coin on a regular coinage press. I know that on second thought you will realize the impracticability of producing proof coins on regular coinage presses.

Very truly yours,

—LELAND HOWARD,
Acting Director of the Mint

"Tombac" Nickels to Go

According to a newspaper article received from J. Douglas Ferguson, the Canadian copper-colored (Tombac) five cent pieces are to be withdrawn from circulation. Finance Minister Ilsley said he hoped the movement would be completed within the near future.

These twelve sided pieces, composed of 88 percent copper and 12 per cent zinc were issued in 1942 and 1943. The alloy called "Tombac" is from the Malay "Tombaga," a popular alloy for jewelry in the East Indies. As 3,396,234 pieces were issued in 1942 and 24,760,256 in 1943 they will probably be found in circulation for many years to come.

A Strange Coincidence

It is indeed a very strange coincidence that the highest price ever paid for a coin both in America and in England by auction sale should have been in July 1946 and in both cases for an 1804 dollar—but quite different pieces.

At the sale of the Francis Cokayne collection of tokens a gold proof of the 1804 Bank of England dollar realized £1300 (equal to $5,239).

At the sale of William Atwater's collection at Fort Worth, Texas, a silver United States dollar of 1804 was sold for $10,500 (equal to £2654.) At the same sale a 1793 cent, described as the finest known, realized $2,000 (about £500) which is probably the highest price a copper cent of 1793 has gone up to in either country.

Paper Shortage Still Acute

Several feature articles and some regular departments have been omitted from this issue in order that the Report of the A. N. A. Convention could appear. If conditions permitted, this report would have been published separately or the size of the magazine increased so as to absorb it.

Neither plan was feasible and the final result is one of necessity, not of choice. The officers of the A. N. A. and all those connected with getting out The Numismatist are doing everything possible to conserve and replenish our dwindling stock of paper but as yet no definite relief is in sight. If any reader knows of a source of 50 pound coated paper he would render the Association a great service by relaying the information.

Correction

For the application of Mr. Lincoln Pierce, No. 12870, as published in the July issue, the Proposers should have been given as Horace Grant and Miss Wilna B. Mackintosh. Furthermore, this member was admitted as of May 1, 1946. Both errors were due to the original application having been misplaced and a duplicate obtained.

REPORTS OF CLUB MEETINGS

SECRETARIES PLEASE NOTE: Reports should be made promptly. Copy must be received by the 10th of the month to insure insertion in the following month's issue. As a usual thing a copy of the minutes is sent in, and almost invariably a number of items of local concern only must be cancelled. The justification for publishing these accounts lies in the numismatic information—and encouragement—to be derived by collectors generally, regardless of location. On this basis we feel it advisable to revise and condense, and, incidentally, the by-product of this course is conservation of valuable space.

ASHEVILLE COIN CLUB—The 12th meeting was held on August 14th at the Wachovia Bank and Trust Company. Nine members and one guest attended. President G. Lichtenfels presided.

Signey Tear read a paper on the "Rhode Island Half Dollar" issued in 1936. This issue is now 10 years old and the paper covered all aspects of the coinage. The set of half dollars, a Rhode Island medal and a block of the 1936 Rhode Island stamps were on display with the paper. The prize of the evening a 1921 Morgan Silver Dollar was won by Will Verner. The Club set the date of August 24th for its annual picnic and a substitute date of August 31st in case of bad weather. Discussion of the 1942 over 1941 dime was held.

—SIDNEY H. TEAR, Secretary

ATLANTA COIN CLUB—The 33rd Meeting was held September 4, at the Henry Grady Hotel. T. H. Landgraf presided with 17 in attendance. An account of the A. N. A. Convention was received from J. J. Gonzales. Mr. Harper told of his recent trip to Canada and his numismatic stops and contacts along the way.

Exhibits:

Mr. Gonzales: Complete collection of nickel and silver 3 cent pieces; Collection of half dimes from 1795 to 1873; 20 cent pieces; Isabella 25 cents; French gold note for 40 francs issued in 1814; miscellaneous foreign copper and silver coins.

—H. H. JOYNER, Secretary

BATON ROUGE COIN CLUB—The second meeting of the Baton Rouge Coin Club was held July 19th, 1946 at 717 Louisiana National Bank Bldg., with the following members present: Louis G. Stirling, W. M. Stirling, Theo. G. Kaufman, Howard E. Huckins, Ken Lewis, P. L. Holden, III, and Alison Moore. Mr. Louis G. Stirling, temporary Chairman called the meeting to order promptly at 7:30 o'clock. Mr. Kaufman, the temporary Secretary read the minutes of the previous meeting. Mr. Stirling then stated that the purpose of the meeting was to adopt the constitution and by-laws, to elect officers and to perfect the organization of the club.

The meeting then proceeded to the order of business. The model constitution and by-laws was read and amendments and additions were taken up one by one. After full discussion, the changes were voted on and the matter was referred back to the committee to put the revamped document into final form and present it to the next meeting for final adoption.

The following committees were proposed as permanent committees: Membership, Entertainment, Auction, Publicity, Nominating. After an extended discussion of the Executive Committee, it was moved by Mr. Lewis, duly seconded, that the committee consist of the President, Vice-President, Treasurer, Secretary and two members to be elected by the club.

The meeting then proceeded with the nomination and election of officers. The following were nominated: W. M. Stirling, President, John Earl Uhler, Vice-President, Ken Lewis, Treasurer, Theo. G. Kaufman, Librarian-Curator, Miss Allison Moore, Secretary. There being no other nominations, Mr. Kaufman moved that the nominees be declared elected to serve for the remainder of the present calendar year, which was unanimously accepted by the club. A meeting for the completion of the organization was called by the President, William M. Stirling, for Thursday, August 1st at 7:30 o'clock P. M. at 717 Louisiana National Bank Bldg.

Mr. Willie gave a report as chairman of the committee appointed to investigate an opaque-projection machine, and there followed a demonstration for the benefit of the Club. It was evident that printed matter was admirably reproduced on the screen, but that inscription on coins was not legible, either silver or copper coins. Many questions were asked, and the President advised that no decision was to be made at that time.

Robert C. Hall gave a talk on his experiences in the army in the European Theater, with particular emphasis on coin collecting. In his display of coins was one group of fourteen; each coin having two busts on one side. Visits to the museum in Brussels for references and Spink's in London were the high points of the talk.

CALIFORNIA COIN CLUB—The 222nd club meeting, featuring a "Numismatic Nightmare" sponsored by Max Mogi, brought out an attendance of 22 members and guests. The matter of securing the A. N. A. Convention in 1949 was again discussed, and it was announced that the Orange County Coin Club and the Bay Cities Coin Club had joined with the California Coin Club in this endeavor. President Larson, from the floor, presented the matter of a paid up membership from the club to Harry C. Allard, a blind numismatist and a former member, and by a unanimous vote the secretary was authorized to issue such a membership card with the compliments of the organization.

The speaker of the evening, Mr. Mogi, then pranced in driving a great herd of numismatic nightmares which turned out to be more than half a hundred of his best movie scrapbooks. Mr. Mogi, introduced as the father of the idea which originated moving pictures, has had the honor of being both a motion picture actor and a writer in this field, and his many reminiscences and anecdotes proved highly enjoyable. He also collects coins, stamps, matchboxes and other objects, and from these hobbies obtains a "lift" sought by non-collectors from cigarettes and cocktails. Early photographs of movie queens and stage actresses, for example a picture of Billie Burke in a bathing suit of 1911, created great hilarity. In respect to other scrapbooks, the male contingent displayed an unusual and perhaps morbid interest, proving Mr. Mogi's contention that his hobby is highly intoxicating. Throughout the entire evening more smiles were in evidence than at any previous meeting, and the event was a definite innovation and pleasure. At the next meeting Crest Lazaro will be in charge of "A Numismatic Awakening."

BOOK REVIEW

UNITED STATES POSTAGE CURRENCY AND FRACTIONAL CURRENCY.

Dr. Frank Alvin Limpert of Royal Oak Township, Michigan, $2 Postpaid.

Marked by actual illustrations of notes, a worthy contribution to numismatic literature appeared late this summer in the book, "United States Postage Currency and Fractional Currency," by Dr. Frank A. Limpert.

This probably is the first time this series of notes has been illustrated. Another innovation in this 36-page booklet is the series of brief biographical sketches of persons whose likenesses appear on the notes. In his thoroughness, Dr. Limpert also describes the origin of the engravings of Washington, Jefferson and Lincoln. We believe this is the first time the biographies of Messrs. Spinner, Dexter, Meredith, Walker, Crawford, Clark et al have been presented in such a work on the subject.

The author uses newspaper articles, official statements and the writings and quotations of several others in telling the story of small paper notes. He even reproduces a short sketch on the origin of the term "shin plasters." Some collectors, incidentally, perhaps have different theories about the origin of this term, applied to fractional and other notes. Most readers will be interested, we think, in the 1873 account of the visit to General Spinner.

Dr. Limpert, who has specialized in the notes for some years, also offers advice on the mounting of these bills.

Besides illustrating and describing the five issues, Dr. Limpert briefly discusses the fractional currency shield and the arrangements of the notes thereon. He states there probably are less than 200 of these in existence today. He also discusses rarities among the notes and notes bearing autographs. A check list supplement is promised by the author for early publication.

Dr. Limpert expressed gratitude to several government officials, including Chief Justice Fred Vinson, who, as Secretary of the Treasury, gave permission to reproduce the notes. Privately, Dr. Limpert believes the officials gave this permission because of their interest in numismatics, and that permission is a compliment to all collectors. He had 3,000 copies printed and each is registered in the name of the owner.

ADVERTISERS PLEASE NOTE

All correspondence relating to advertising should be addressed to the Business Manager (see above). Make all remittances payable to the American Numismatic Association.

Advertising Contracts: These are available, covering periods of three, six and twelve consecutive months for display space as listed in the above Table of Rates, and are necessary if the schedule of reduced rates is to apply. If the advertiser prefers not to accept the Contract, such reduced rates will be granted only upon payment in advance for the period desired.

References: All advertisers who submit copy for the first time are definitely requested to furnish therewith banking or other satisfactory references.

Available Space Units: Practical considerations restrict the allocation of space units to those listed in the above table. Any amount of space is available IF these units or a combination of them are used. Unless contrary instructions are given, copy will be cut if found too full for the space designated; if no designation is made, it shall be understood the amount of space is left to the discretion of the Editor.

Classified Ads: The cost is computed at five cents per word each insertion: initials (two), numbers and abbreviations to count as words. Minimum charge, $1.00. Remittance must accompany copy. These will be set in 6 point Roman; no display type.

Deadline: Copy must be received by the 10th of the month to insure insertion in the following month's issue.

Miscellaneous: Please furnish copy separately from your letter of transmittal. Advertising copy included in the body of a letter usually has to be re-typed for the printer; this should not be required.

Advertising copy should be prepared with minute care. Carelessness invites error—something which both advertiser and publisher are anxious to avoid. Use only one side of the sheet.

In the absence of an Advertising Contract, when payment in advance for any number of consecutive months has been made, if change of copy has not been received by the 10th of the month for the next issue, the latest preceding advertisement will be run.

Advertisers may use a trade name, but, except in the case of an incorporated concern, the name of the proprietor or of some other responsible person connected with the firm must also appear in the advertisement.

The right to edit copy, to require payment in advance, and to decline any advertisement is specifically reserved. Superlatives prohibited.

ANNOUNCEMENT

I have diligently searched throughout most of the principal cities of China for someone who is really an authority on Chinese silver Dollars. My labours were not in vain. After associating with Mr. H. Chang of the Chinese Numismatic Gallery in Shanghai for several months, I was convinced that he is the best informed man in the world on this subject.

As a result of our association we are happy to announce our forthcoming book,

CHINESE SILVER DOLLARS

By

H. Chang and Dennis W. Sibert

Due to the fact that a number of noted collections have contained bogus pieces or "coins" that never existed, we have devoted an entire chapter to bogus and counterfeit Chinese silver Dollars, with actual photographs of these fakes.

For the photography we have had available the E. Kahn collection, one of the finest of Chinese silver Dollars ever assembled. Most of these silver Dollars are uniquely different, and, with the exception of a few coins, actual size photos accompany every description.

This book contains much information that has never before been published. Over one hundred experts have been consulted regarding the many minor features that are too numerous to mention here.

One feature of outstanding value to the collector is a table of comparative rarity, giving the approximate number of each of these coins in existence.

The book itself will be beautiful—the finest work of art that the modern publisher can produce.

It may be obtained by reservation only, and only one hundred copies above actual requests will be published. The price is ten dollars.

ANNOUNCEMENT

I have just purchased the superb collection of large Cents and Half Cents formed over the years by

MR. ED. H. MOODY

and these items will be offered by me at auction in due course.

The Cents range from many examples of 1793 straight through to 1936—all the rarities—and in marvellously fine condition, with a wealth of brilliant proofs, beginning with the later years of the large Cents. The series of Half Cents is equally complete, and equally notable for condition.

The collection contains other highly desirable coins that will be included in the sale, catalogue of which will be sent to those on my mailing list, and to others who may request it.

August 31, 1946

Dear Mr. Kosoff:

The American Numismatic Association Convention held in Davenport, Iowa, from August 17 to August 21, would not have been a success without your untiring efforts to make the auction outstanding in every respect. I know something of the hard work involved.

The material was of the finest, each lot was attributed conservatively in every instance - a wide variety of fine numismatic material to choose from, was all that one could ask.

We do appreciate so much your efforts in our behalf, and assure you of our high esteem and regard for your numismatic integrity.

Cordially yours,

(Signed) LOYD GETTYS

SCOTT STAMP & COIN CO., INC.Coin Department*1 WEST 47TH STREET, NEW YORK 19, N. Y.

In the early days of the Coin and Stamp business, Scott's always had a coin department. During the late 80's and early 90's the late Lyman H. Low was the manager, and it was he who produced the first Standard Coin Catalogues, the last and best editions of which were published in 1893. At about that time it became evident to the Scott Company that dealing in stamps was more profitable than the sale of coins, so the department was closed and Mr. Low went into business for himself. From that time until 1930 the Scott Company had no coin department and no publications relating to coins.

Late in 1930 Wayte Raymond made an arrangement with Hugh M. Clark to operate a coin department in connection with the sale of the National Coin Album pages and various popular coins. This operation continued until the summer of 1945 when illness of the manager, Leonard Kusterer, and lack of other competent help made it impossible to continue the project.

After a period of deliberation it was considered advisable to put the department in charge of New Netherlands Coin Company, now managed by Charles M. Wormser, son of the late Moritz Wormser, a numismatist known to all. The newly formed department will carry the most complete retail stock in the country, of National Coin Album pages, binders, Popular Albums, and all publications of Wayte Raymond, Inc., handled by an expert sales staff.

COIN OF THE MONTH

(Exclusive right claimed to this expression)

Each month we will try to offer you some especially interesting coin as the coin of the month. This month we offer the silver peso of San Salvador, the smallest nation on the western continent. This is a dollar sized coin, well designed with the portrait of Columbus. It is of course no longer issued. Offered in various dates in vf or better condition. Price $2.50.

Unusual combination of unc. bills. A rare little provisional Peso of Chile, with a Boliviano of Bolivia, and a Peso of Mexico. All new and crisp. CIR. LINCOLN ROLLS

85 different complete Lincoln cir. rolls and 9 partial rolls covering all mints and dates from 1909 to 1942 inclusive. Partial rolls are: 2 1909-S VDB; 21 1909-S; 37 1912-D; 29 1912-S; 5 1914-D; 25 1915-P; 25 1915-S; 24 1924-D; 11 1931-S. All other rolls are complete. Complete set of rolls now priced at $125.00 plus transportation. Formerly priced at $175.00.

WILL YOU SELL OR TRADE?

Like every dealer I would like to buy your rolls of unc. 1939-D, 1939-S and 1942-D Nickels, and your other early rolls. If you should have any 1932-D or S Quarters that you want to part with I would like to know what you want for them. Am also anxious to buy some Mexican Pesos and 8 Reales. Can anyone use 500 to 100 N. M. unc. plastic tax tokens?

RECOMMENDED INVESTMENT

It has been three years since the steel Cents were issued. They are a distinct numismatic oddity. I think they are bound to go up in price. It may be a couple of years but they should make a good investment. It doesn't cost much to put away 1000 unc. Cents of each of the three mints of 1943. $78.00 plus transportation will bring you these 3000 Cents.

IF YOU BUY MODERATELY PRICED COINS OF THE BETTER CLASS

I have just purchased a collection of U. S. coins, strong in specimens in very nice condition: Half Dollars in early dates, a choice lot of extremely fine Half Cents, a good lot (no rarities) of desirable early large Cents.

Also have a beautiful lot of early European Crowns, mostly unc.; and a nice lot of unc. U. S. Fractional Currency.

This ad will not interest scalpers who may think I am a beginner and do not know values. Let me say that I started my first collection of coins in 1885; I attended all the coin auctions in Chicago for many years, and have broken up a number of valuable collections.
